

Chart of Motions

What delegate says	Function	Requirements
Motions to hold a caucus on a specific topic and of a specific time duration (<30mins)	Suggest a possible topic, and the type of caucus with the amount of time delegates are given to speak.	A majority vote.
Motions to extend the caucus to specific time duration (<20mins)	Extend the amount of time delegates are given to speak	Chair's discretion. Majority vote.
Motions to close the caucus	End the caucus before the time limit, in order to proceed to a more constructive topic or caucus.	2/3 of total delegate's votes.
Motions to adjourn the meeting	Temporary suspends the session and sets the time for continuing session	None. (Can only be motioned by delegates).
Requests for a point of order	When a delegate believes the chair has made an error during the running of the committee.	Chair's discretion.
Requests for a point of information	Poses a question to a speaker during moderated caucus.	Decision of speaker.
Requests for a point of personal privilege	Informs the chairperson of a discomfort the delegate is experiencing.	None.
Requests for a point of inquiry	Asks the chairperson a question regarding the rules of procedure	None
Appeals to the chair's decision of the decision	When delegates feel the chairperson has incorrectly decided a point or motion.	None. (Can only be motioned by delegates).